Between Tradition and Modernity:
The Weimar Films of Fritz Lang

All films will be shown using rare 35mm prints from the Friedrich-Wilhelm-Murnau-Stiftung (Wiesbaden, Germany). Screenings are free and open to the public and will be held at the Jim Ottaway Jr. Film Center, Bard College. Please check our website for directions and updates: http://film.bard.edu.

Tuesday, October 2nd, 7:00 PM:
Die Nibelungen: Siegfried (1924, 140 minutes)
Die Nibelungen: Kriemhild’s Revenge (1924, 129 minutes)

Wednesday, October 3rd, 7:00 PM:
Destiny (Der müde Tod, 1921, 79 minutes)

Tuesday, October 9th, 7:00 PM:
Spies (1929, 150 minutes)

Friday, October 19th, 7:00 PM:
Dr. Mabuse, the Gambler, Part 1 (1922, 129 minutes)
Dr. Mabuse, the Gambler, Part 2 (1922, 105 minutes)

With very special thanks to Carmen Prokopiak and Jürgen Klein (Friedrich-Wilhelm-Murnau-Stiftung)